THIS IS YOUR LIFE

Here it is - our Alma Mater - Park View High School. For five years of our lives this is our "home away from home". In these pages the attempt is made to cover only one of these years; September, 1960 to June, 1961.

The excitement of football season, the pageantry of Homecoming and May Day, the magic of the Junior-Senior Prom, the whirl of commencement activities . . . . . .all these and many other memorable moments are relived in the following "Leaves of Memory".

For you, the students of Park View, "THIS IS YOUR LIFE.".

The School Board Supervises County Schools;

"The School Board is charged with the supervision of the system of public free schools in the county. The duties of the School Board are numerous and include decisions relating to the location and maintenance of schools, offerings of courses, budgetary problems, and personnel. The Board elects a Superintendent of Schools from a list of eligible persons supplied by the State Department of Education. The Board employs teachers and other administrative officers for the local school system."

Virginia State Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. A. B. Haga, Division Superintendent of Mecklenburg County, received his Bachelor of Education degree from Randolph-Macon College and his Master of Education degree from the University of Virginia.

Mr. E. A. Payne, Director of Instruction for Mekclenburg County, received his Bachelor of Education degree from Hampden-Sydney College and his Master of Education degree from Northwestern University.

The Principal Supervises Students.

Mr. C. H. Morgan's fruitful life began on a farm in Vance county, North Carolina. He attended elementary school in Vance county and completed his high school work in the secondary department of Mars Hill Junior College. From there he attended Wake Forest for two years after which he entered the University of Richmond where he received his B.A. degree. Later he received his master's degree from Duke University. During the years, Mr. Morgan has done graduate work at several colleges including the University of North Carolina, Duke University, the University of Virginia and V. P. I.

In his teaching career, Mr. Morgan has served as principal of several Virginia high schools. Mr. Morgan was chosen to be the first principal of Park View in 1954 and was actually responsible for naming the new school.

Prominent in educational organizations, Mr. Morgan has served as president of the Mecklenburg M.E.A., president of District "E" M.E.A., a member of the board of directors of V.E.A., president of District "D", Principal's Association.

Mr. Morgan's busy schedule at Park View as the responsible head of the school and agent of the school board includes a variety of duties ranging from checking the electrical equipment and the menu to classroom observation. Mr. Morgan must also be acquainted with the legal aspects and requirements of the school and must file records and reports for the county and state.

Each student at Park View is aware of his concern and his desire to help every individual in the school make the most of his life. It is because of the guidance of such a man as Mr. Morgan that Park View is able to operate smoothly, efficiently, and that the teachers and students are able to work together as a happy family.

The Park View Faculty Through

The Park View faculty is composed of twenty eight capable men and women. The faculty holds a weekly meeting every Monday after school to plan activities for the week and to discuss any problems concerning the student body.

In addition to serving their primary function of providing sound educational courses for the students at Park View, many members of the faculty sponsor clubs and extracurricular organizations, or give up part of their leisure time to supervise after-school activities. Each faculty member is ready at all times to assist a student in any way possible.

Mr. Harold Wise holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Glenville College. He teaches Physical Education, and coaches the varsity football and J. V. basketball teams.

The Office Is Park View's Nerve Center.

Each Life at Park View is affected and guided by the activities in the office. From the office authoritative messages, announcements and other important news is passed on to the students over the public address system.

In the main office Mrs. Walthall, the school secretary, has her headquarters. This section is the information center for students, teachers, and visitors. It contains file cabinets, bulletin boards, the faculty's mail boxes, a lost and found department, and a jumbo bottle of aspirin.

Above is Mr. C. H. Morgan, Park View's principal, the responsible head of the school, and the agent of the school board. Mr. Morgan always has time in his busy schedule to hear individual problems and to give students the benefit of his fatherly counsel.

Here, Mr. B. P. Lumpkin, the assistant principal and Mr. Morgan's right hand man, looks up from a stack of daily bus reports. Mr. Lumpkin is the man to see for passports, excuses, and locker numbers.

Mrs. Jill Walthall, Park View's efficient secretary pauses briefly from her secretarial duties. Mrs. Walthall is the school banker, typist, bookkeeper, telephone operator, and errand girl who keeps the office in order.

The Principal's Message To Seniors

Farewell, but not goodbye, seniors of 1961. You have finished requirements for graduation. You have been numbered among the graduates of Park View High School. However, we will always have a feeling of family tie with you. Your success or failures in life will be shared with me and each of your teachers. Therefore we hope that you will feel free to call on us for assistance whenever such is needed. May the Lord bless and guide you in your various ways in life.

These are the times that will long be remembered and recollected later in life. Yet, here in these pictures time stands still and recaptures that wonderful night.

The Tenth Grade Class party will long be remembered by those who attended. The decorations, music, dancing, conversation, and the atmosphere of friendliness will be filed away in the scrapbook of memories.

The Ninth Grade Officers Are Leading

The ninth grade has chosen the officers to lead them through the 1960-61 school term. Their new officers are Mary Cabell Estes, president; Betsy Walker, vice-president; Dwight Phaup, secretary; Linda Moore, treasurer; Jo Jo Tanner, reporter.

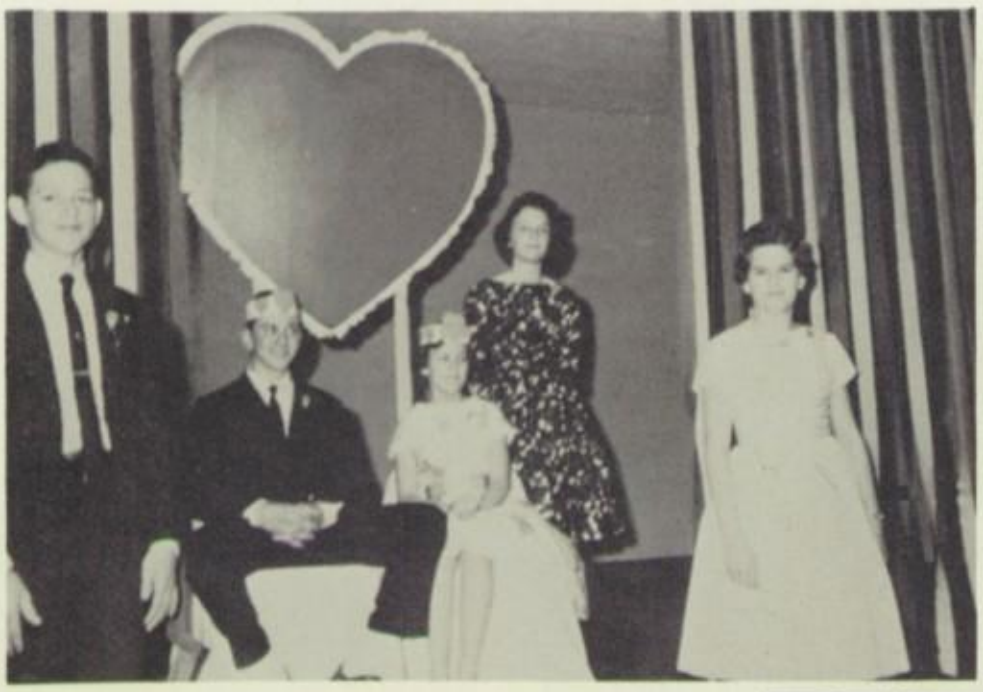
With New People And New Ideas.



At the eighth grade party, a King and Queen of Hearts have been chosen to reign over the festivities. The King of Hearts is Curtis Wells; his lovely Queen is Vicky Newman. Runners-up are, standing left to right: Lewis Paynter, Ann Thomas Gill, and Sarah Jane Leggett.

Amid colorful decorations of red and white hearts and streamers, the time quickly passes as eighth graders dance with a spirit of lively excitement.

Different dances and games add to the fun of any party. Here we see eighth graders enjoying a "Paul Jones."

Park View-20	Emporia-12

As the scores illustrate, the roaring Dragons' '60 season is a winning one, packed with exciting action and the glory of a 19-18 victory over the Bluestone Barons, Park View's arch-rivals, in a game which will long be remembered by both teams.

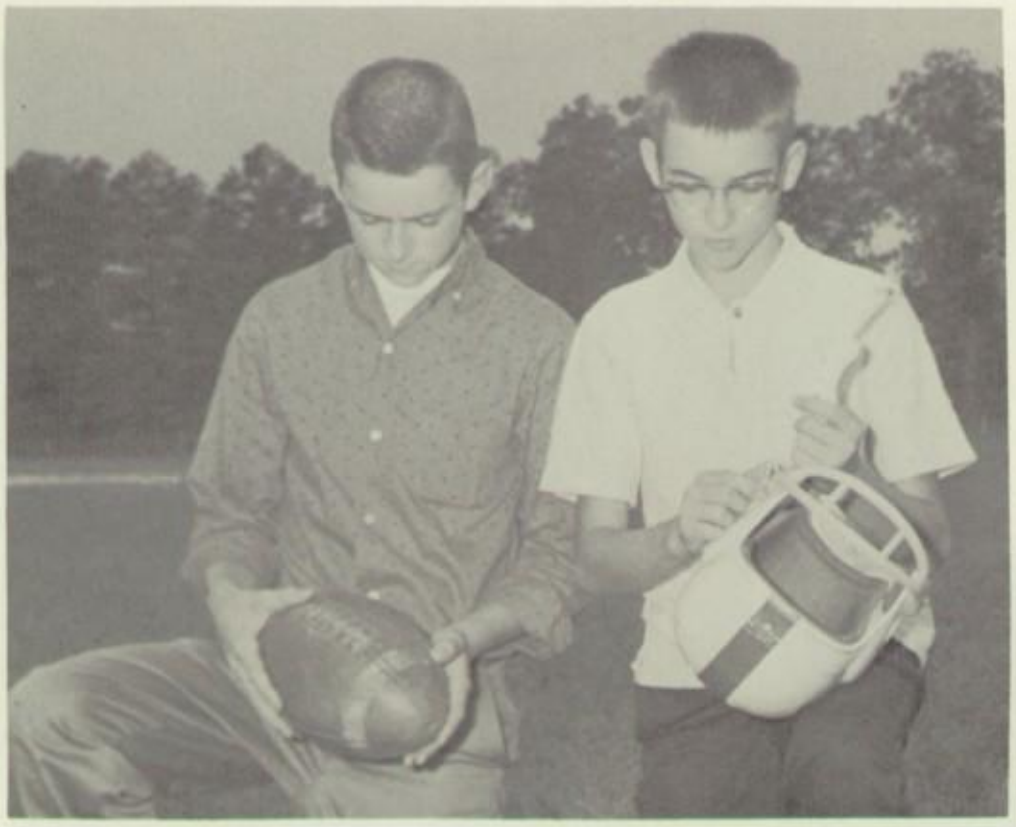
Go Dragons Go!! Go!! Fight! Win!



John O. Cook and Danny Keeling, co-managers of the varsity football team, check some equipment before a big game. Their hard work and efforts contribute a large part to the success of the team.

A performance by the Tot and Teen Twirlers is always a high spot of a halftime show. The Twirlers are under the supervision of Vickey Walker, head majorette of the Park View High School Band.

Win or lose the loyal spectators stay behind the team all the way, giving them moral support with their lusty cheers and yells. Here are Mrs. McBride, Mr. Morgan, and Mrs. Martin in the stands as they urge the Dragons on to victory.

After A Strenuous Schedule, The

Breaking the record seems to be the J. V. football team's goal as the '60 squad is the first to complete an undefeated season. During the season only two teams managed to break through Park View's almost inpenetrable defense to score.

Players on the junior varsity squad must learn basic play patterns and rules to ready themselves mentally as well as physically. The team then scrimmages with the varsity players which prepares them for tough competition.

This undefeated J. V. team promises good material and thrills for the future.

Mr. R. E. Cobb, the junior varsity coach, gives Captain Ronnie Moseley a few pointers on an important play.

J.V. Squad Completes The Season Undefeated.

"We want a touchdown! We want a touch down!" yell the P. V. fans as they cheer the J. V. football team which is engaged in a fierce conflict with the Bluestone J. V. team. At the left, Tommy Leggett, number 17, in possession of the ball for P. V. is being brought down by a Bluestone man.

The crowd goes wild as Ronnie Moseley, with the pigskin is finally downed on the fifty yard line after completing a brilliant play.

Below, Mike Martin, number 42, has broken away and is headed for that goal line to score the first touchdown of the game. Bluestone remains scoreless and the game ends in triumph for Park View with the score, P. V. 39; Bluestone 0.

"Victory! Victory! That's

The ten peppy Park View cheerleaders stimulate the football and basketball teams on to victory many times with their loyal support and enthusiastic cheers during the games. Also, at pep rallies the cheerleaders lead the student body in cheers to rouse school spirit and to back the team for the big game ahead.

Tryouts are held each spring to choose cheerleaders for the coming year. Contestants are judged by the sponsor, several faculty members, captains of the football and basketball teams, and the former cheerleader captain.

The cheerleader captain is elected by the squad.

Here, Mrs. Estelle Lumpkin, serving as cheerleader sponsor for her sixth year, is seated with Nell Walker, the cheerleader captain.

Our Cry V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!"

By contributing their loyalty and hearty cheers to urge the Junior Varsity teams on to victory, the J. V. cheerleaders have an important place in Park View's sports life. At varsity football games the J. V. cheering squad participates by selling programs and working in the concession stand.

Through these activities the cheerleaders develop poise, coordination, and other skills which will aid them in the competition for varsity positions later on.

The squad consists of five eighth graders and five ninth graders who are chosen by the eighth and ninth grade sponsors at tryouts held early in the fall.

The Band Is Composed Of Members From

The Park View High School Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. Fred B. Duncan, is made up of forty playing members, plus four majorettes, a color guard of four members, and drum major. The band presents a colorful half-time show at every football game and provides lively popular and march music from the stands during the time-outs. During the year, the band participates in various parades throughout the state and has

And Plays An Important Part In

Vicky Walker, a freshman, is the head majorette of the band. It is her responsibility to organize the majorettes and plan baton routines for parades and football games.

Ben Brown, drum major of the Park View Band, is a sophomore this year. He is responsible for leading the band at football games and parades. During the concert season, Ben plays first trombone in the concert band.

Michael Legge, Janan Montgomery, Sara Nell McBride compose the twirling team of the band. They perform twirling routines at football games using regular batons, ribbons, lighted batons, flags, and fire batons, and participate in formations with the band.

The band officers elected by the band members are Becky Jane Evans, president; Betty Lawrence Perkinson, vice-president; Martha Walker, secretary-treasurer; Mildred Cleaton, reporter; Leland Kirkland, student director.

Homecoming, Night Of Thrills,

The Homecoming Game and Dance is the big event of every football season. Kay Malone, an attractive senior, has been chosen by the student body on the basis of outstanding personality and character traits to reign as Homecoming Queen. She will be crowned during an impressive halftime ceremony and will reign at the dance following the game. The Homecoming festivities are held to welcome home all alumni of Park View.

Below, we see Queen Kay Malone and the members of her court.

Club Interests Make Our Year Pass Quickly.

Clubs provide a valuable supplement to Park View's cirriculum and offer students opportunities for service, education, and fellowship. The various clubs cover many areas of interest such as teaching, homemaking, language, athletics, music, agriculture, and business.

Each student is allowed to join two separate clubs. In addition to these two clubs students may also belong to the Beta Club, an honorary organization.

Mr. Lumpkin instructs students as to the time and place of each club's organization. A schedule has been worked out by the faculty to prevent the confusion of organization.

S.C.A. Promotes Good School Relationships.

The Student Council is composed of elected representatives from each class. These students work together to promote better relationships among the student body and faculty members and to encourage co-operation and participation in all school activities.

The S.C.A.'s projects for the year include sponsoring a "Miss Park View" contest, sending delegates to the S. C. A. convention, operating a store of school supplies for students.

The Park View S.C.A. serves as host for the Staunton River District Meeting this year.

Art Is The Key To Self-Expression.

Activities of the Art Club add an artistic touch to the life at Park View as the club publicizes school events artistically, experiments with new media, and promotes art in general.

Membership is open to those students who have already completed one year of art and also to seniors who are taking art for the first time.

During one of the club meetings, members sketched charcoal potraits of each other with surprising results. At another program Mr. Houk, a member of the faculty who has had experience as an art instructor in a psychiatric ward, discussed the importance of art in psychiatry.

The sponsor of the Art Club is Mrs. Bertha Watson.

For Their Future Roles As Wives And Mothers.

The Future Homemakers of America is made up of all girls enrolled in any type of home economics course. The purposes of the F.H.A. are to emphasize the importance of worthy home and community life, to promote appreciation for homemaking, to work for good home and family life, to promote international goodwill, to foster creative leadership, and to provide wholesome individual and group recreation.

The Park View Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America belongs to the Twin County Federation along with Bluestone High, Kenbridge and Victoria High Schools. Bernice Thomas, president of the Park View F.H.A. is serving in her second year as president of the Twin County Federation. This is the third consecutive year that a Park View student has held this position.

Park View has a very active F.H.A. Each year its members send entries to be judged at the county fair, hold fashion shows with clothes which they have made and which they model. A hayride at the end of the year will climax the activities of the club for another year.

During the summer, some members of the club attend F.H.A. camp.

Park View's Two 4-H Clubs Are Active

All eighth grade students interested in 4-H Club work may join the Junior 4-H Club at Park View. During the year, the members carry out the duties of every 4-H member which include projects for community, home, and personal improvement. Many of the club members enter such projects in the Mecklenburg County Fair and are awarded ribbons and cash prizes for their hard work.

Also during the year there is an annual "Share the Fun Contest" in which both junior and senior club members compete for titles through a display of talent. Park View has always been well represented and this year was no exception. 4-H Club members of Park View walked away with many of the first and second place honors.

In School And Community Projects.

Members of the Senior 4-H Club of Park View are active in school, community, and church activities. 4-H helps build character, independence, and love of country in the youth of America.

Senior 4-H trains students in home management, modern farm methods, community and home improvements.

During the monthly meetings the 4-H Club members have seen demonstrations on first aid and civil defense given by the Southside Rescue Squad of South Hill and have gained invaluable information which may one day save a life.

The club members devote much of their "spare time" to preparing exhibits for the county fair. Some of their projects include (for the boys) steers, poultry, corn, tobacco, and various feeds and grains; (for the girls) steers, poultry, clothing and prepared foods.

Each Day At Park View Begins With A Prayer

Every day at Park View begins with a brief devotional over the P. A. system. A list is prepared at the beginning of each six weeks by the S.C.A. of students who have volunteered to handle this responsibility. Today, we look in on Nell Walker as she takes her turn in giving the devotions.

When the bell rings to end a class, the deserted halls suddenly fill with students rushing in all directions. Laughing, talking, and hurrying from room to room, they create a scene of friendly confusion.

Shhh----This Is The Library.

Miss Delphine Hatch, librarian, is showing several students the locations of the various types of books in the library. Miss Hatch is always ready to help students to find books, references for themes or reports, or to explain the uses of the library. In the background, Mr. C. H. Morgan, principal, observes the pupils at work.

Students in study hall enjoy the facilities of the library. Here, they do research work, read books, magazines, or newspapers, or make use of a quiet place to study.

Studies Of Various Languages

The French Department's aims are to acquaint the student with the pattern of foreign language, to understand French when spoken, to speak it and write it within reasonable limits. Through the language of the country, the French students learn of the country, its history and its people.

Second year French involves a more complex study of the French language than first year French plus studies of the country itself. These students are learning correct pronunciation through the use of records and visual aids. 1st row: Roy Robinson, Mary Scott Johnson. 2nd row: William Jackson, Benny Evans, Jimmy Crutchfield. 3rd row: Joe Ballard, Elizabeth Glass, Charles Reese, Mrs. Sara Cliborne.

And Cultures Promote Understanding.

In first year Latin, students learn basic vocabulary skills and do simple translations. In connection with their classwork, they do research on Roman legends, customs and beliefs. Here we see, left to right, Janice Roberts and Garland Locks reporting on Venus, the Roman goddess of love; while Janan Montgomery and Ken Powell give interesting facts about Mars, the god of war. At the board are Gloria Jean Griggs and Mrs. Boswell. Listening attentively are, 1st row: Martha Walker, Barbara Laine, Betsy Walker, Carol Land 2nd row: Vernon Oakley, Threet Gill, Janice Davis, Rachel Smelley. 3rd row: Vickey Walker, Betty Jean Hamlin, Linda Crowder. Standing: Carlton Cole, Betty Kinker, Page Taylor.

Second year Latin students do detailed translations of Roman mythology and history, and study the everyday life of the Romans. This second year Latin class is discussing the movie Ben Hur in relation to the facts that they have learned about Roman life. 1st row: Otis Willis, Charles Moseley, Sarah Nell McBride. 2nd row: Betty Creedle, Helen Stone, Bill Vaughan, Jane Garland, Larry King. 3rd row: Lacy Gordan, Edna Earl Matthews, Martha Gayle, Vernon Oakley. 4th row: Ben Brown, Nancy Ebbert, Elaine Piercy, Joyce Nance. Standing: Mrs. Boswell.

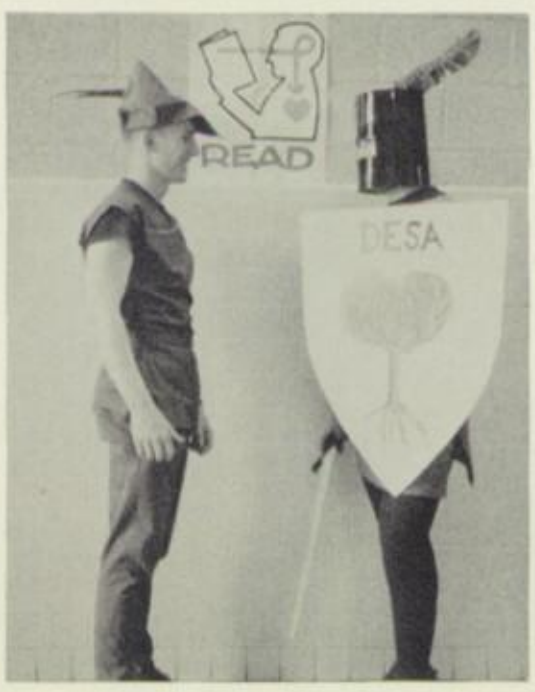
Poe, the English Classes Are on the Go.

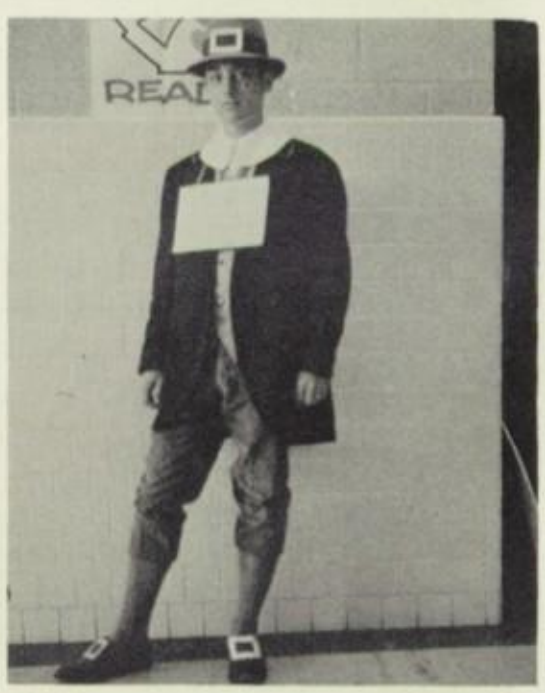
Left to right: Bill Carter, Betty Perkinson, R. B. Cage, Martha Crowder, Becky Evans, Chuck Watson are preparing a display of the Senior English projects. The projects were assigned in connection with the Seniors' study of the literature of England. The projects range from dolls dressed to represent characters in Shakespeare's Macbeth to literary maps of Seventeenth Century England.

Below are pictured members of Mrs. Sarah McBride's Junior and Senior English Classes who are dressed to represent characters from books they have read. This representation of literature is an annual event.

From The Last of the Mohicans by James Fenimore Cooper, J. S. Cundiff is dressed as Hawkeye.



Robin Hood and Ivanhoe from the book Ivanhoe by Sir Walter Scott are brought to life by Ronnie Jones and George Kelly Martin.



Sammy Land represents Walter Scott from the book Young Walter Scott by Elizabeth Janet Gray.

Here we see a "Bonnie Scotch lassie" from The Heart of Midlothian by Sir Walter Scott in the person of Becky Evans.

Billy Carter and Otis Willis protray Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson from Famous Tales of Sherlock Holmes by Sir Authur Conan Doyle.

Preston Raines represents Robert Rassendyll from The Prisoner of Zenda by Sir Anthony Hope.

Public Speaking Develops Confidence And Poise.

Journalism Class Reports School Activities.

Vocal Talents Are Cultivated At P.V.

The Choral Club is made up of two different groups: the high school mixed chorus and the eighth grade girls' chorus. The two groups perform for the student body and for various clubs in the community. They participate in Christmas, Easter, and May Day celebrations and are under the direction of Mr. Fred Duncan. The group together with the Park View Band has made a recording of songs and music which has been made into records.

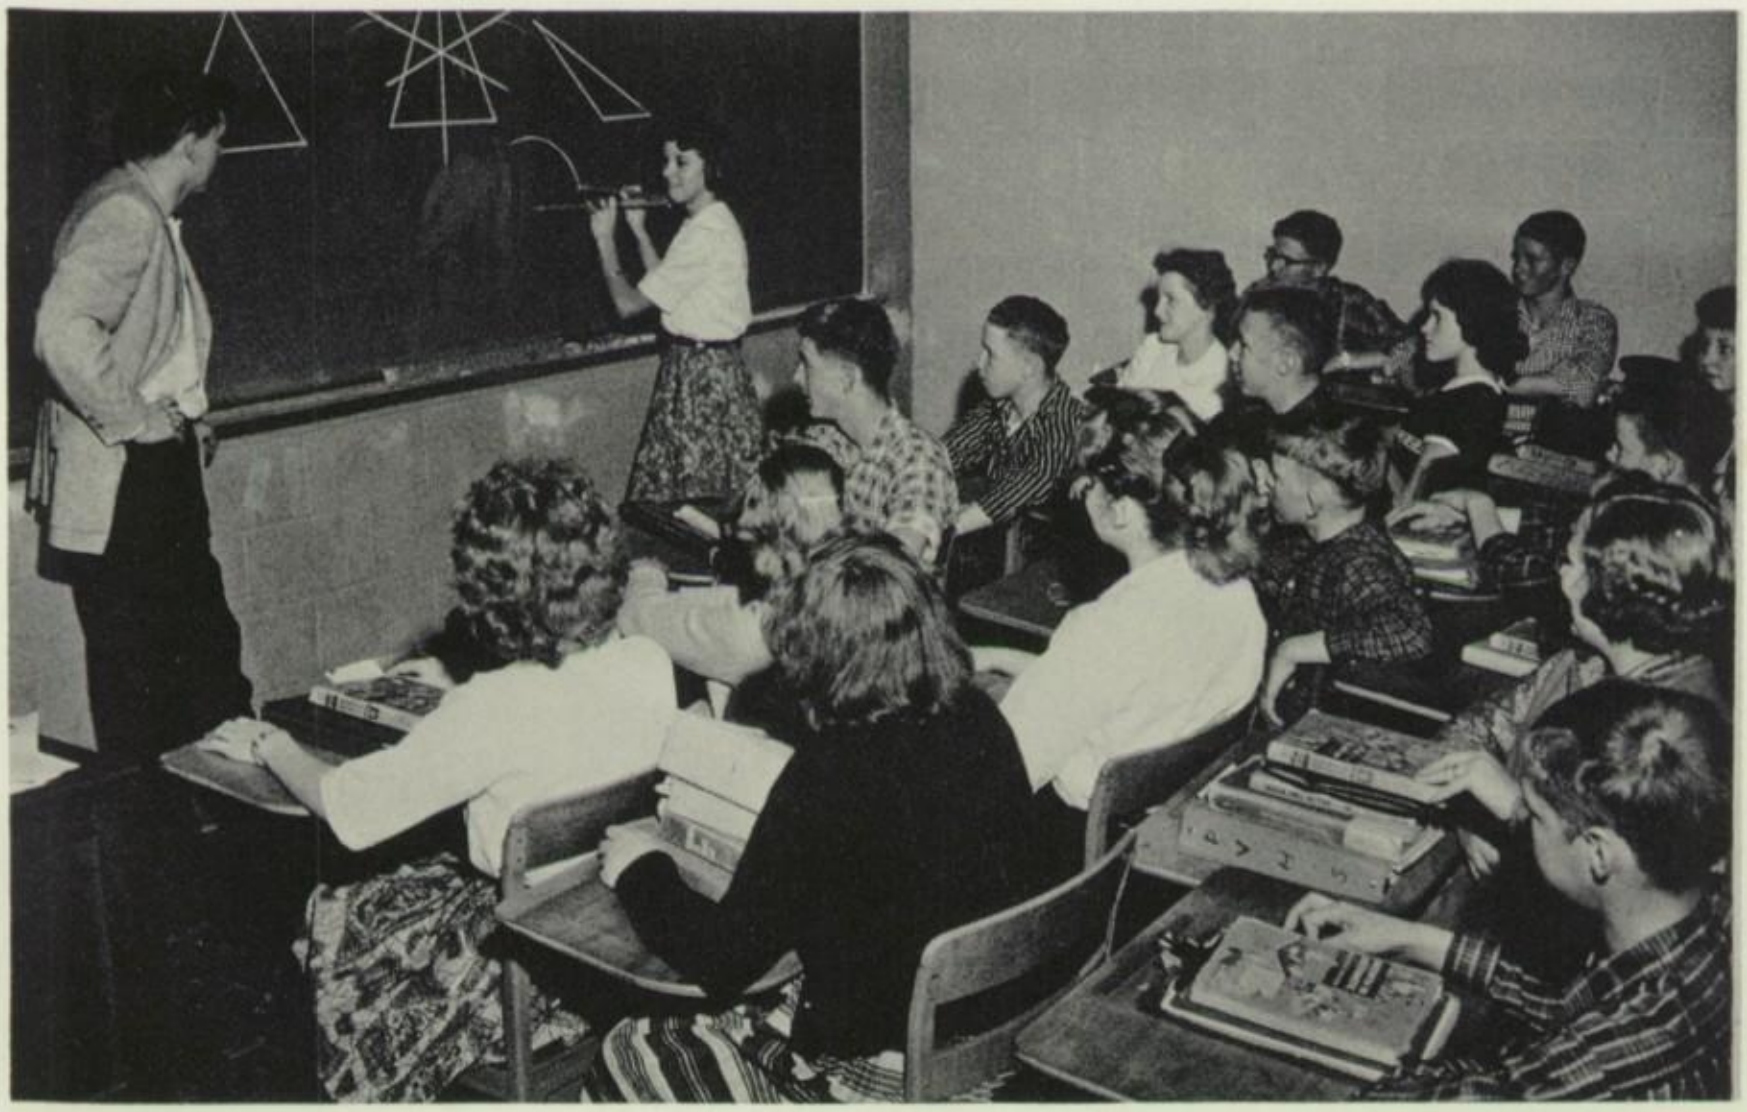
Park View has an excellent Mathematics Department with well qualified instructors. They are Mrs. Evelyn Bennett who teaches Math 9, Algebra I, II, and Advanced Algebra, Solid Geometry and Trigonometry; Mr. David Houk who teaches Math 8 and 9. and Mrs. Louise Osborne who teaches Plane Geometry, Algebra I and Algebra II.

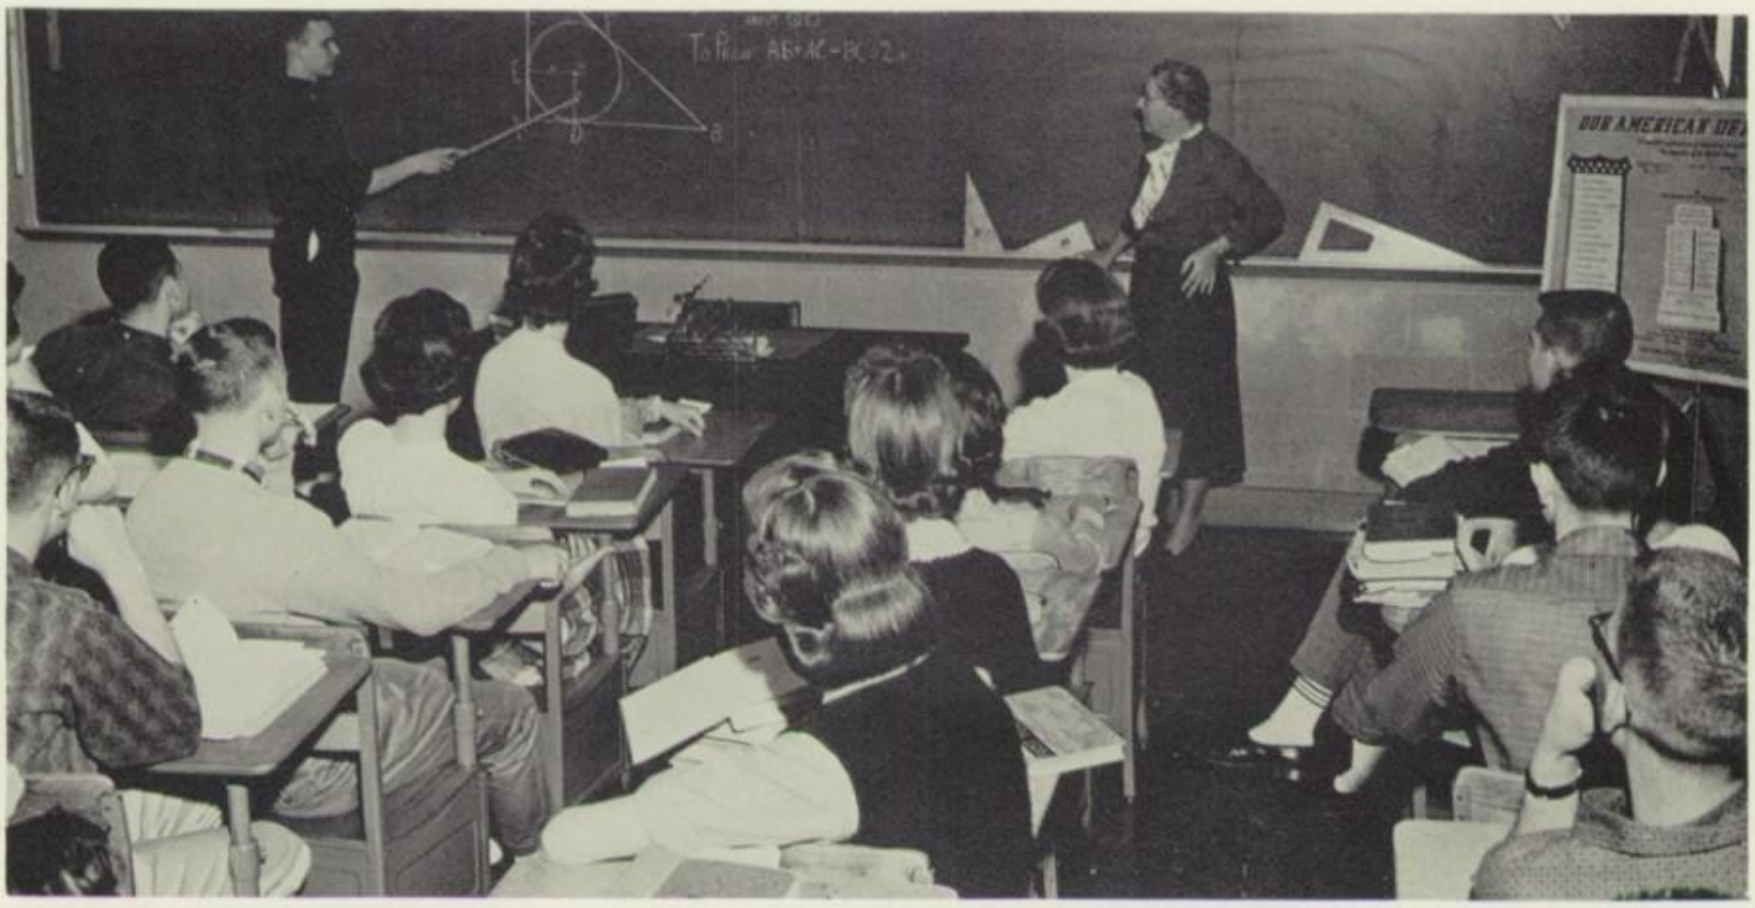
The Math 8 and Math 9 courses are concerned with the fundamental principles of addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division. Algebra I and Algebra II courses teach students to use their previously gained knowledge of mathematics in setting up equations and solving problems with one, two or more unknowns.

Advanced Algebra is a course designed for seniors who have had two previous years of algebra and who plan to go to college. They review the principles of Algebra I and II and take up new topics which they must be prepared to meet in college math. Plane Geometry deals with the study of two dimensional objects in a flat plane and Solid Geometry is the study of third dimensional figures. Trigonometry makes possible the finding of unknown distances and directions by the use of triangles and scale drawings.



As Mr. David Houk looks on, Linda Nicholes demonstrates the correct method of constructing equilateral, isosceles, and scalene triangles to this Math 8 class.

Through Advanced Mathematics.



Steve Hines is proving a theorem for Plane Geometry Class as Mrs. Louise Osborne looks on.

Science Courses Prepare Students

Park View has a well-rounded science department under the supervision of qualified instructors. General Science is taught by Mr. R. E. Cobb; Biology is taught by Miss Barbara Greeson; Chemistry is taught by Mrs. Ruth Martin; Physics is taught by Mr. R. E. Cobb.

The General Science courses are designed for eighth and ninth graders. These students are taught general scientific principles and their importance in daily life. The Biology classes are studying the plant and animal kingdoms. Field trips, dissecting small animals, and experiments in grafting are some of the projects these students are engaged in. The Chemistry classes are studying matter and the changes in matter under certain conditions. Laboratory experiments and class room observation provide first hand instruction and add interest to the class-period. The Physics class also studies the properties of matter and work problems dealing with changes due to forces acting upon it.

Social Sciences Give Us A Vital

Courses in the field of social studies give students an understanding of their background and heritage and freedoms, rights, and duties in our modern world. This department is made up of Sociology and World History taught by Mr. Leo Allen; United States History and World Geography taught by Mrs. Annie McLean; Government taught by Mr. B. P. Lumpkin; World Geography by Mr. Charles Dunn.

United States History is the story of our country — its beginning, growth and struggles. World History compares our heritage with that of the people of other countries and strives to promote world-wide understanding. Sociology is the study of current events of our age and the effect they will have on our generation and on the generations to follow. Government is a course designed especially for seniors to prepare them to take their place in an organized society. They are taught the privileges and rights they may exercise and also the limitations and restrictions to which they must subscribe.

10..9..8..7..6..5..4..3..2..1..0..It's Lunch Time!

The cafeteria staff is faced with the difficult task of providing appetizing and nourishing meals for over five hundred students five days a week. Park View has a well-trained staff which does an excellent job in supplying a wide variety of meals to the students.

Here we see a group of students enjoying their lunches. Because of the large number of students to be served, they are divided into three continuous shifts.

Satisfaction Is Found In Physical Well-Being.

The Physical Education Department is made up of Girls' Phy. Ed., taught by Mrs. Estelle Lumpkin, and Boys' Phy. Ed., taught by Mr. Harold Wise and Mr. Leo Allen.

In this department, students are taught the rules and methods of playing games as well as good sportsmanship. They also have classes in personal health, driver education, and first aid.

These eighth grade girls are participating in a game of basketball as part of the Physical Education class.

Under the supervision of Mr. Harold Wise, this eighth grade boys' phy. ed. class is learning tumbling exercises.

There's No Business Like Office Business.

Business Math, Bookkeeping, and Office Practice are taught by Mr. Gene Pfoutz; Shorthand and General Business are taught by Mrs. Beth Cobb; Transcription is taught by Mrs. Marie Tucker; Typing is taught by Mrs. Beth Cobb and Mrs. Marie Tucker. These courses compose the Business Department.

These courses provide students with sound business education and training. Students preparing for college as well as those interested in business careers enroll in typing. They are taught the parts, care, and functions of the typewriter and the correct way of using the machine with speed and accuracy.

In shorthand, students learn symbols for letters and words to insure speed in taking dictation. In Transcription they take dictation from the instructor and then transcribe their notes into type. Office practice attempts to give students an idea of the conditions they will meet in actual office work. They become familiar with the many machines found in a modern office and the jobs which a secretary must perform, such as filing, dictation, and writing business letters. In bookkeeping, students are taught the basic principles necessary for keeping business books.

Mrs. Cobb assigns problems in taxes to her General Business Class. 1st row: Roy Lee Wells, Johnny Flippen, Gene Poythress. 2nd row: Clarence Crowe, Betty Kinker, Michael Legge, Alma Burton, Betty King. 3rd row: Joyce Martin, Linda Nelson, Carolyn Newcomb, Betty Panther, Betty Ashworth, Brenda Dooley. 4th row: Betty Jane Puryear, Nell Robertson, Virginia Scott, Patricia Simmons, Carolyn Thaxton.

Commercial Dept. Prepares Students Well.

Mr. Pfoutz and Wayne Lett look on as Barbara Estes, Betty Lehman, and Edna Jones work with ledger sheets and journals in Bookkeeping class.

Home Economics And Shop Give

These home economics students are being instructed in the care of the sick. They are learning such things as proper bathing, diet, method of taking temperature, and rest. Left to right: Mrs. Frances Whitten, Betty Kinker, Maude Tolbert, Patricia Thompson, Virginia Scott, Barbara Evans, Sallie Mae Echols, Linda Allgood.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Martin, this class is learning to cut out dress patterns. After they complete the cutting stage, they are taught to fit and sew the garments. Every year this department holds a fashion show featuring clothing made and modeled by the girls.

The Home Economics Department consists of two well-qualified teachers, Mrs. Ruth Martin and Mrs. Frances Whitten. In these classes, students are taught skills that are necessary in the management of a modern home. In addition to cooking, sewing, and general housekeeping, these students are taught personal neatness and fitness. The practical knowledge these girls are gaining will be invaluable in the future.

Practical Training And Experience.

The Vocational Education Department prepares boys for everyday life and work. This department is made up of Industrial Arts, taught by Mr. Hugh Elliot and Mr. R.C. Hines; Agriculture, taught by Mr. Hugh Elliot and Mr. L. E. Kent; and Mechanical Drawing, taught by Mr. R. C. Hines.

Art Develops Self-Expression.

The art classes under the direction and guidance of Mrs. Bertha Watson study art in every form and have displays that attract much attention from the entire student body. Blind drawing is one of the phases of the art program that interested many of the non-art students. The classes are called upon to make posters for various activities, and several students have won cash prizes for their posters in state-wide contests.

The Guidance-Trio Directs Students

The Guidance Department is more directly concerned with each individual student than any other school organization. This department is made up of Miss Marguerite Trimm Mrs. Sara Cliborne, and Mr. Gene Phoutz. These counselors are kept busy throughout the year working out schedules, interviewing students and parents, and standing by ready to assist students at any time.

One of the first persons one gets to know upon entering Park View is Miss Trimm, guidance director. Whether the student is an eighth or ninth grader with questions about his new surroundings, a sophomore or junior considering the possibilities of college, or a senior filling out college or job applications, Miss Trimm is on hand to offer cheerful assistance.

Here we see the members of the Guidance Department. Left to right: Mrs. Cliborne, Mr. Phoutz, and Miss Trimm. They are available to students for advice and counseling at all times.

Elizabeth Glass Is Crowned "Miss Park View"

Let's look in on the high spot of the first annual "Miss Park View" Beauty Pageant — the crowning of Elizabeth Glass as Miss Park View, 1961 by Mr. C. H. Morgan. At right, Margaret Poythress, first runner-up happily looks on.

As the pageant draws to a close, we see the two lovely runners-up. Left to right: Margaret Poythress, first runner-up; and Nancy Cole, second runner-up.

Sally Taylor Is Elected "Miss Future Teacher"

Now the scene changes to an eighth grade English class where "Miss F. T. A.", Sally Taylor, is doing practice teaching. Each year, the senior members of the club take charge of one class for a week. This experience is of great value in helping students to decide if the teaching profession would be satisfying for them.

Park View Is Represented By Beauty...

This year for the first time a "Miss Park View" beauty contest was held. This event was sponsored by the S. C. A. with plans for turning it into an annual affair. All girls in the senior class were encouraged to enter the contest. The contestants were judged by a panel of judges from a neighboring school. The judges rated each girl on poise, neatness, and beauty.

At the right is "Miss Park View, 1961", Elizabeth Glass.

.....And By Brains.

The third annual "Miss F.T.A." contest was also held at Park View this year. This contest is sponsored by the Marguerite Trimm Chapter of the Future Teachers of America Club. The club sponsored candy sales at variety shows and ball games and the junior-senior girls' basketball game to raise money for a twenty-five dollar book scholarship to be presented to the winner of the contest.

All senior members of the F.T.A. who have made plans to pursue a teaching career become contestants. "Miss F.T.A." is selected by the members of the club on the basis of character, integrity, and desire to teach.

This year "Miss F.T.A." is Sally Taylor. Sally plans to attend Longwood College where she will major in elementary education.

The Senior Cast Brings Down

Tonight the senior class is presenting the play "Quit Your Kidding", a three act farce-comedy. "Quit Your Kidding" is about the Buford family; Mrs. Mary Buford; Evelyn, the oldest daughter; and the fun-loving twins, Winnie and Binnie. The Bufords are overjoyed to learn of the visit of a rich aunt, Mrs. Sophronia Buford, until they discover that she hates boys. To conceal the fact that Winnie is a boy, Mrs. Buford dresses him in girl's clothes. Everything goes fine until Aunt Sophronia falls and breaks her leg. Then a stay in the hospital, the influence of some of Evelyn's friends and a change of heart by Aunt Sophronia brings about a surprising ending.

Mrs. Buford (Mary Ellen Mewborn) hires Camilla Dusenberry (Brenda Jordan) as a maid to try to impress Aunt Sophronia during her visit.

Aunt Sophronia (Margaret Thomason) is welcomed by Winnie (Henry Harper) dressed in his twin Binnie's clothes, and Mrs. Buford as Binnie (Kay Malone) and Evelyn (Nell Walker) look on.

The House with "Quit Your Kidding"

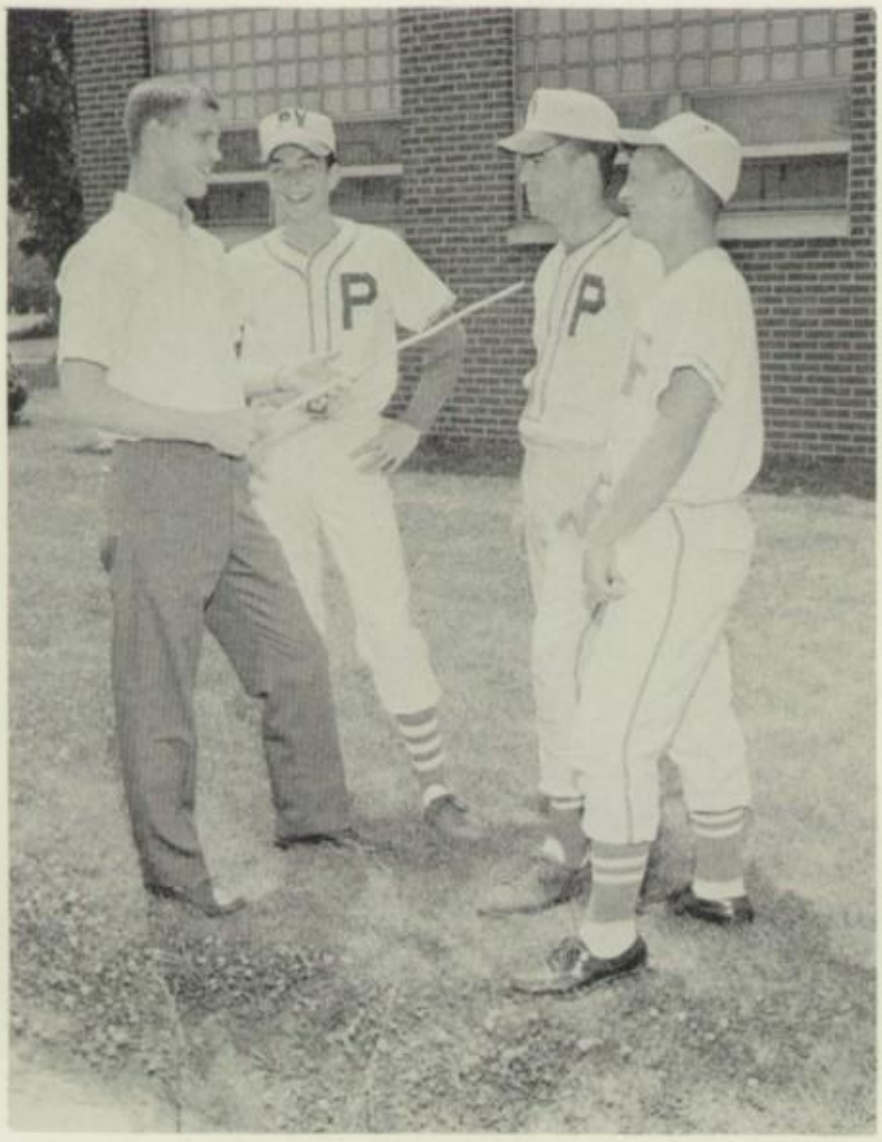
Evelyn and Mrs. Buford frantically try to aid Aunt Sophronia after she trips over a piece of the furniture.

Aunt Sophronia expresses her appreciation to Tom and Mel for the kindness they showed her during her stay in the hospital; Betty, Jean and Binnie look on.

After Winnie confesses that he is a boy, Aunt Sophronia reveals her generosity by making out a large check to each member of the Buford family with special consideration for Winnie.

Park View's Baseball Team



Mr. R. E. Cobb, coach, discusses the starting line-up with the tri-captains of Park View's baseball team. The captains are, left to right: Waverly Tanner, Jesse Poythress, James Martin.

The team set records not through scores but through sportsmanship, the most important product of the game.

Park View is proud of the players and their excellent support of the school through hard, clean play.

Enters A Successful Season.

Marvin Crutchfield, a junior, is a shortstop for the baseball team. He was the first player to knock a home run completely out of the school's new athletic field.

James Anderson, the catcher, is one of the senior members of the team. He is very valuable to the team as a power hitter.

Park View's second baseman is Eddie Crowder, another senior. His outstanding fielding won him a place in the varsity line-up.

Waverly Tanner is a senior and also is one of the tri-captains. He plays third base on the team.

James Martin, also a senior and a tri-captain, is a left fielder. He is one of the team's best hitters.

Another senior member of the team is Ronnie Jones. As a pitcher, he has led the team to many victories.

Jesse Poythress, a senior and a tri-captain is the team's best all around player. He is a first baseman, a pitcher, and an outstanding hitter.

"Holidays on Parade", the May Day Festival,

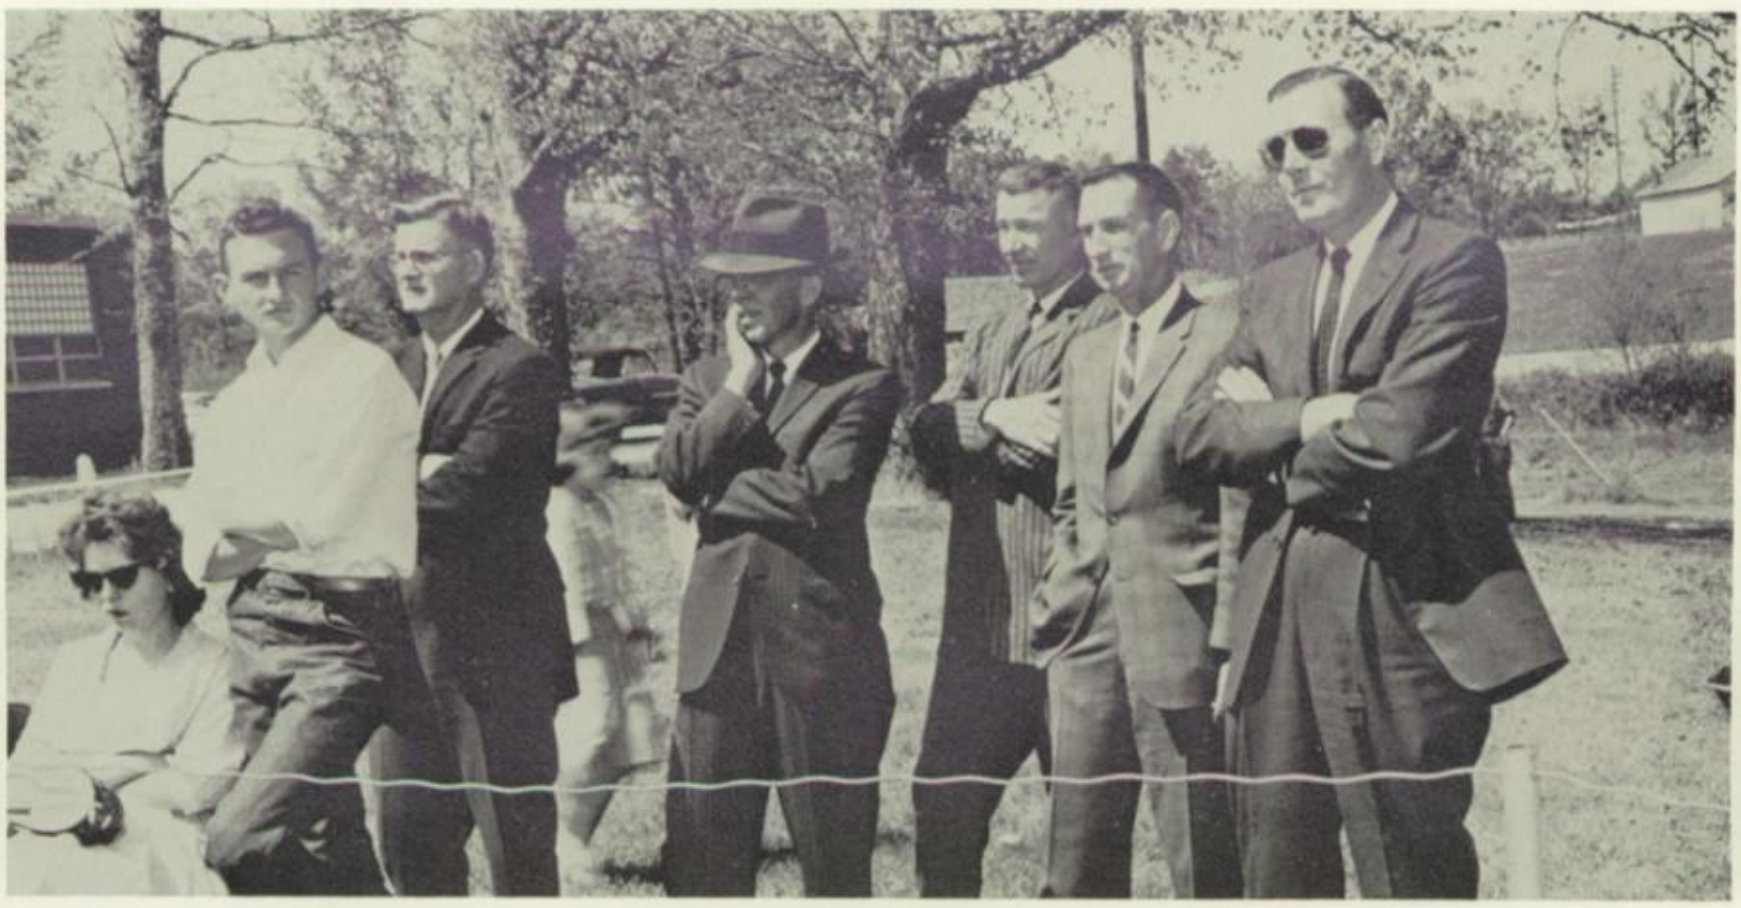
May Day, one of the big events of the school year, requires much planning and preparation. These students are discussing the May Day program with Mr. Morgan. Left to right: Jimmy Brame, Sara Nell McBride, Jimmy Whittemore, R. B. Cage, Sally Taylor, Mr. Morgan, Mildred Cleaton, Betty Perkinson, Becky Evans, Ben Brown.

For several days preceding May Day, students operate under strenuous practice schedule. Each group must have its performance polished to perfection. Here, members of the May Pole Dance, Choral Club, and the Band get in one more practice session before the big event.

Features Representation of Christmas, Thanksgiving

The members of the May Court are, left to right: Lewis Paynter and Kirk Hamlet, eighth grade; Threet Gill and Janan Montgomery, ninth grade; Mike Wilker and Juanita Powers, tenth grade; John O. Cook and Gladys Ezell, juniors; Roland Puryear and Martha Crowder, seniors; Henry Harper, guard-of-honor; Willie Cole, trainbearer; Ralph Lewis, King; Carolyn Hall, Queen; Gloria Jean Crutchfield, flower girl; Randy Crocker, trainbearer; Betty Braddy and Merrill Brown, seniors; Sadie Smiley and Billy Taylor, juniors; Edith Earl Warren and Charles Reese, tenth grade; Janice Roberts and Marvin Piland, ninth grade; Sara Jane Leggett and Curtis Wells, eighth grade.

Members of the school board and faculty are among the spectators at the May Day program. A large crowd is present at the colorful pageant.



St. Patrick's Day, Fourth of July, and Other

Presenting the King and Queen of May; Ralph Lewis and Carolyn Hall. This popular senior couple was chosen by popular vote of the entire student body to reign over the May Day festivities.

Red Letter Days on the Calendar.

Here we see the beauty and color of the May Court. Two attendants and two escorts are chosen from each class. The maid of honor and the guard of honor are the runners-up in the election for king and queen by the student body.

It is a great honor for any student to be elected to the May Court and a thrill which the lucky few never forget.

The May Court is given a ringside seat to the May Day festivities and see, performed for them, the traditional May Pole Dance by the eighth graders. They also see the seasons pass before them as various skits recalling the special holidays of the year are staged by the students. The music for the occasion is furnished by the Park View Band.

Finally, amid the pomp and glory of the occasion, the court begins its recessional march and the reign of the King and Queen of May comes to an end.

This Is the Magical Night There

Venus, planet of love and mystery, veiled in swirling mists serves as the point of rendezvous for the members of the junior class and their guests. One by one the couples board the rocket ship with its flashing lights and suddenly the lovely inhabitants of Venus appear to escort the couples from the rocket into an enchanted land of gently swirling clouds, dancing stars, and strange plants known as money trees. Eerie music floats about on the strange atmosphere until suddenly a more familiar earthtype music is heard as Larry Tudor and his orchestra land in their private space ship and couples begin to dance away under the stars.

In the Starlight Room the earthlings discover that the people of Venus have a talent for food which is equaled nowhere in the universe. Love portion punch Saturn sandwiches, and Cupid cup cakes are the specialty of the house.

Venus has much lovely scenery as everyone can see. Here are three of the charming inhabitants who serve as hostesses for the strange earth people. Left to right: Carolyn Crowder, Betsy Walker, Harriett Hubbard. The gentleman at the far right seems quite interested in the antics of the strange earthlings who have invaded his peaceful planet.

These earthlings find that the atmosphere of Venus is quite like that of earth except that the stars appear much closer and lower, almost within reach. They seem so close that they often appear to touch the heads of those dancing below.

Was A "Rendezvous On Venus."

One difference these earth couples find between Earth and Venus is that on Venus it rains multi-colored confetti instead of the familiar H_2O.

Money trees of Venus are fascinating to the people of earth since they have always been told that money doesn't grow on trees.

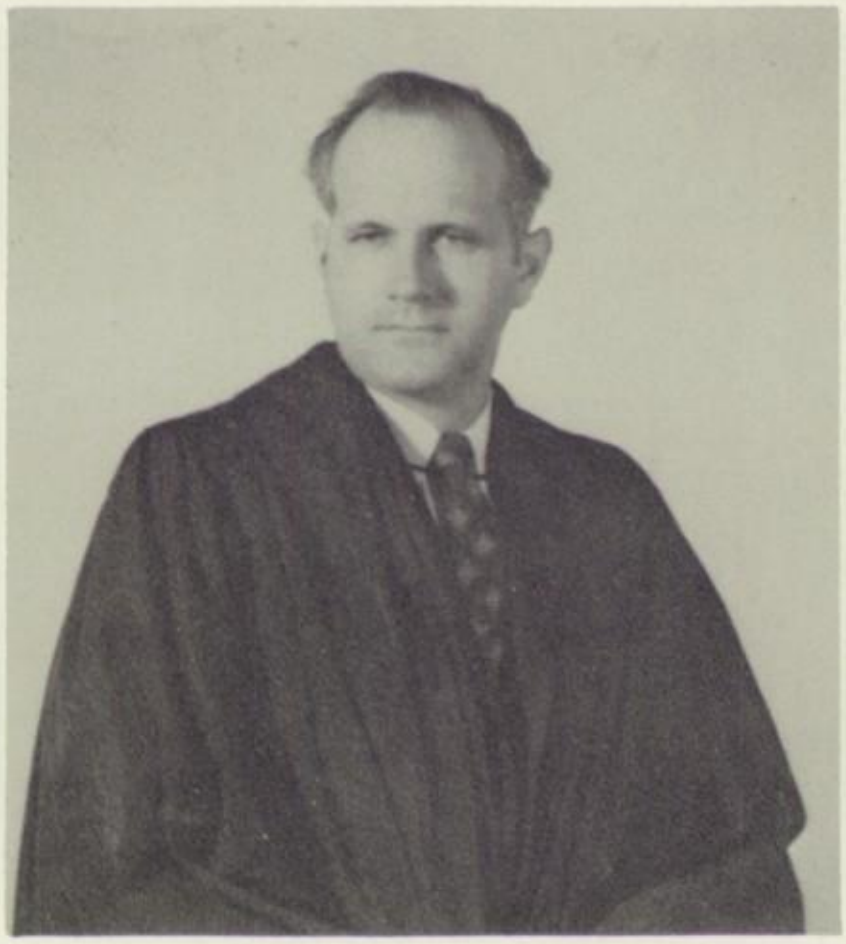
This night is filled with enchantment and wonder, but soon Venus must be left among the stars, and all that will remain will be a lovely memory.

Its Finally Here! The Last Day! But

It's finally here! The last day of school. Amid the excitement of making farewells to friends and teachers comes the suspense of report cards. Benny Forrest, Sammy Simmons, and Teddy Forrest are anxiously comparing exam and semester grades.

After receiving report cards, students head for the buses for the last time. No more books, tests, homework, exams for three whole months. Friends must say good-by until next year.

The Last for Some Is the Beginning for Others.



The invocation for Baccalaureate is led by Reverend Samuel S. Cole.

The Baccalaureate Sermon is delivered by Reverend Fred A. Duckett.

Baccalaureate Service on Sunday, June 4, marks the "beginning of the end" for the seniors. It is the beginning of the graduation activities which will be climaxed by Graduation Exercises on Friday, June 9.

The seniors march in to the strains of "God of Our Fathers" played by Robert Elliott, pianist, accompanied by trumpeters Charles Reese, John Taylor, Threet Gill, and Jim Bryson.

The service is opened by Reverend Samuel S. Cole giving the invocation. Reverend Fred A. Duckett delivers the sermon to the seniors who are preparing to launch themselves into life.

The service ends with the recessional of the seniors to the strains of "Grand March" from Aida.

The seniors stand, nervously awaiting the beginning of the services in their honor.
The Marshals for Baccalaureate and Graduation are Betty Boswell, head-Marshal; Beth Hylton and Wayne Wright.

Seniors View Their Past, Present, and Peek

Sally Taylor, finishing third in her class, becomes the historian. It is her responsibility to record the past five years of the class's history.

The giftorian is Margaret Thomason, who finished fifth in the class. She must present a suitable gift to each senior.

Carol Neubauer, having finished fourth in the class, is responsible for the writing of the last will and testament.

Jean Evans, finishing sixth in the class, is declared class prophet. She will give a brief glimpse into the future of each of her classmates at Class Night.

Into the Future at Class Night.

"Mr. Senior, 'THIS IS YOUR LIFE'," so began Class Night of '61 as the senior class president, Ronnie Jones, acting as master of ceremonies for the occasion, greeted the special guest for the evening, Mr. Senior '61. Mr. Senior, represented by several boys of the senior class, was given a look at his past by the surprise guest, Sally Taylor. (At the right Miss Taylor is seen reading the class history to Mr. Senior represented by Sammy Land as Ronnie Jones looks on.) It soon became apparent that Mr. Senior has been quite a hard worker the past five years, but he also has had his lighter moments. There was the time Mr. Senior donated his "spare moments" to planning the Junior-Senior Prom. That is one of the many pleasant memories Mr. Senior will always carry with him.

The next guest presented Mr. Senior with a glimpse into his future. Jean Evans, prophetess extraordinary, saw many changes in store for Mr. Senior and much happiness ahead if he would work toward his goals. Mr. Senior can look forward to world wide travel and also a trip to outer space.

Though he is still quite young, Mr. Senior has had a will drawn up and it was so unusual that another guest, Carol Neubauer, read it for the benefit of the studio audience. Miss Neubauer is pictured below reading Mr. Senior's Last Will and Testament.

To close the evening's entertainment in the traditional style of television, R. B. Cage was on hand to acclaim the fine quality (?) of O-Heck cigarettes and to encourage everyone to stop smoking before it is too late.

The fine camera shots of the show during the evening were accomplished through the swift and graceful actions of the cameraman James Anderson.

It was soon revealed that Mr. Senior bequeathed some rather odd "possessions" to his friends. Among these oddities were a yo-yo, a "gold" thumb, batting averages, "woman troubles", torn English books, old Algebra III books, school buses, girl friends, and various abilities which Mr. Senior did not possess in the first place.

Mr. Senior received many gifts for his hard work the past five years. These gifts were presented by Margaret Thomason. The gifts too were quite unusual. They ranged from baby cradles, bird callers, and razor blades to money (phony of course), rolling pins, whistles, and a rabbit's foot for luck.

Two of Mr. Senior's good friends were present and were called on to sing for him. Elizabeth Glass and Lennie Whittemore brought tears to Mr. Senior's eyes with the beautiful music and lyrics of that old familiar song "Graduation Day".

Following the song Milton Allgood, the famous poet, gave a reading of his most widely acclaimed poem, "School Life".

A special vote of thanks was given to the sponsors of the program, Mr. C. H. Morgan, Mrs. Sarah McBride, Mrs. Bertha Watson, and Mrs. Sara Cliborne.

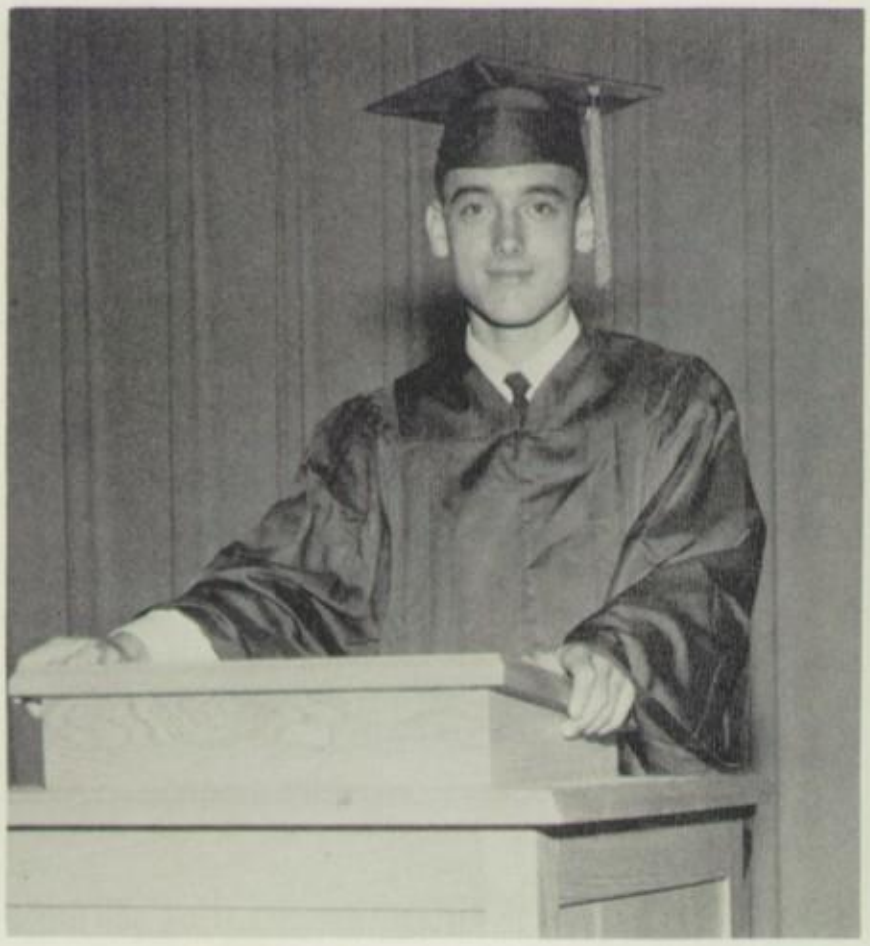
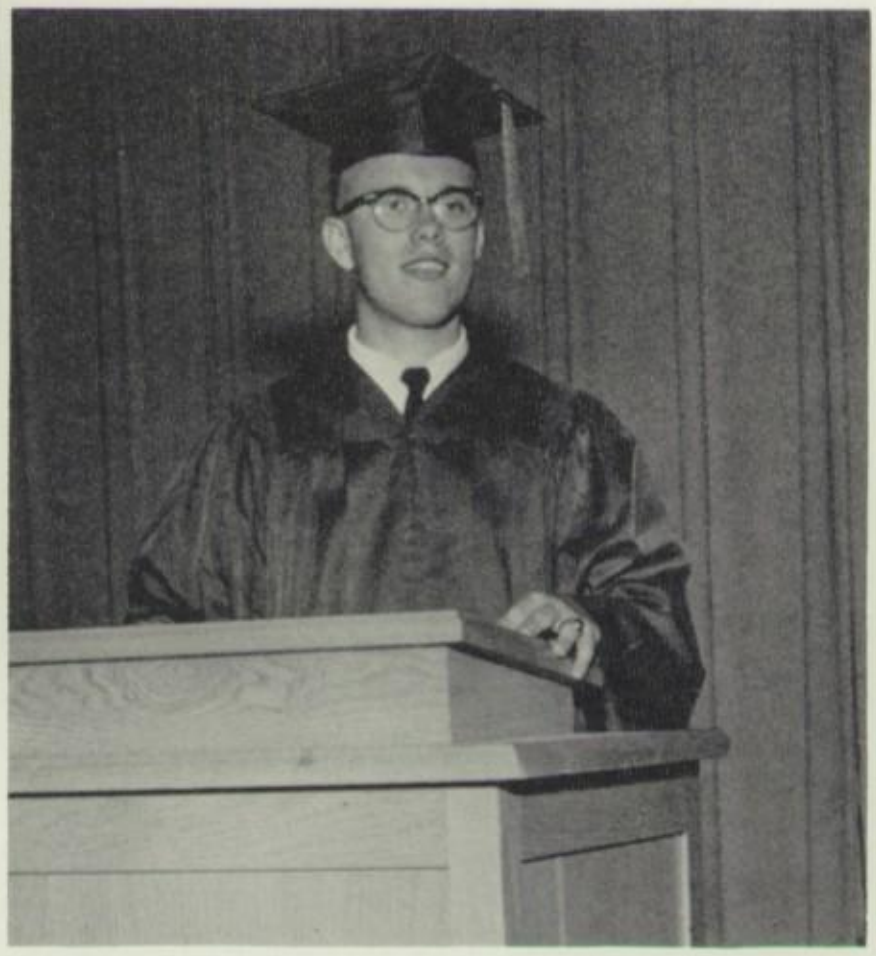
The first of the three Valedictory speeches is delivered by Becky Evans. "Knowledge Is Power" is the topic.

"Man Is the Measure" is the topic for Salutatorian Betty Perkinson's Commencement speech.



"Character Is Nature's Highest Form" is the speech delivered by Sammy Land.



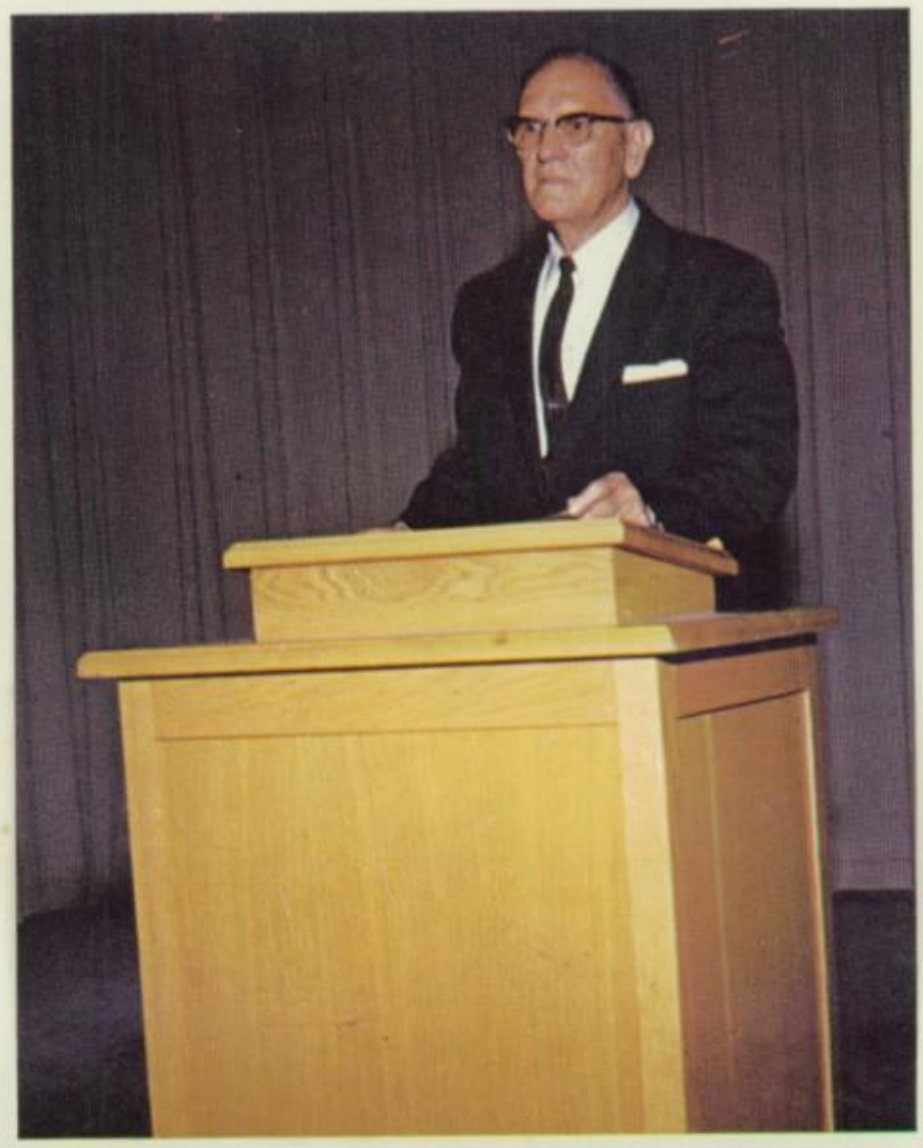
(At right)
Leland Kirkland delivers the concluding Valedictory, "Imagination Is New Reality".

Commencement Climaxes A Year to Remember.

At last - it's Graduation Night! All week the seniors have practiced marching and rehearsed speeches. Tonight, Friday, June 9, is the night of the end and the beginning for the ninty-five seniors. The seniors march in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and stand nervously for the invocation led by Reverend A. Woodrow Laine.

Through a rosy glow the seniors see the exercises begin with the Salutatory, delivered by Betty Perkinson. The Salutatory is followed by the Speaker's Address, "The Future's Frontiers", by Mr. Ray E. Reid. The Class Gift is presented by the senior class president, Ronnie Jones and Mr. B. P. Lumpkin presents the awards.

Suddenly - it is time for the presentation of diplomas. One by one the seniors receive their diplomas from Mr. C. H. Morgan and then are no longer seniors, but GRADUATES.



Yes, five years is a long time, but the years have passed all too soon. There are mixed emotions as the seniors line up for the last time together. 1st row, left to right: Elizabeth Reese, Elaine Echols, Loretta Cumbia, Cathy Forrest, Frances Anne Rainey, Carol Neubauer, Margaret Thomason, Martha Crowder, Betty Jean Smith. 2nd row: Elva Allgood, Kay Malone, Margaret Poythress, Carolyn Hall, Sharon Welch, Elizabeth Glass, Bernice Thomas, Betty Ann Lehman, Edna Jones. 3rd row: Louise Morris, Betty Braddy, Peggy Lewis, Nancy Cole, Betty Wells, Betty Allgood, Betty Perkinson, Becky Evans, Carolyn Reese, Edna Rose Newman. 4th row: Glenn Simmons, Barbara Estes, Sally Taylor, Jeanne Brooks, Mary Ellen Mewborn, Jean Evans, Brenda Jordan, Carolyn Wall, Nell Walker, Shirley Toombs, Mildred Cleaton. 5th row: James Anderson, Bill Carter, James Martin, Bobby Dale Pulley, Roland Puryear, Tom O'Toole, Paul Baird, Dick Clary, Jimmy Smiley, T. Wayne Roberts, Edward Bobbitt, Hugh Hamby. 6th row: Butch Binford, Ralph Lewis, Claude Washburn, Lennie Whittemore. 7th row: Merrill Brown, George Kelly Martin, Tommy Jones, Ronnie Jones, Wayne Lett, Mac Bugg, Dan Blalock, Miles Kidd, C. Wayne Roberts, Leland Kirkland, Charles Harvell, Edwin Spake, Eddie Crowder. 8th row: Henry Harper, Chuck Watson, Reginald Arrington, Jerry Hendrick, Nelson Whitley, Wayne Smith, Clyde Washburn, George Burton, Billy Simon, Milton Allgood, R. B. Cage, Joe Taylor. 9th row: Jesse Poythress, Waverly Tanner, Jimmy Brame, H. P. Farrar, Preston Raines, John Starling, Billy Carter, Otis Willis, Jr., Wesley Cole, David Hahn, William Arrington, Snead Carey, Bill Puryear, Sammy Land.

The Annual Staff Strives to Capture

The hardest job but the most rewarding that a high school student can have is that of a position on the annual staff. The staff is faced with the responsibility of fitting into the pages of a single book, all the events of an entire school year, financing the project and keeping up their scholastic grades as well.

The staff owes a debt to many students of Park View who are not on the staff and who have received no recognition for the time and talents they have given that this "Leaves of Memory" might be possible. The faculty too stands in line for a heartfelt THANK YOU.

We'd like for you to meet Becky Evans-- editor of the "Leaves of Memory". It is her responsibility to see that everyone on the annual staff carries out their job. It is also her job to plan the annual and lay out the pages.

A School Year Between Covers.
